

Bobbie Anderson Leadership Award

Named for OADN's first president, the Bobbie Anderson Leadership Award is given annually to an educator or nursing program administrator who has demonstrated exceptional leadership within his or her institution, community, and at the state and national levels. Mrs. Anderson joined with other state leaders in nursing to organize the Organization for Associate Degree Nursing. Mrs. Anderson helped ensure quality health care through her dedication and tireless efforts in promoting associate degree nursing education and practice. All nominations must submit a completed award application postmarked by September 30, meeting all requirements listed on the application form. The $1,000 award will be presented at the OADN annual convention in November.
