

Our Mission: OADN is the national voice and a pivotal resource for community college nursing education and the associate degree pathway.

Our Vision: To expand networks that promote leadership, collaboration, and advocacy to further enrich nursing education and the communities we serve.

Our Work: OADN provides continuing education opportunities, leadership development programs, and advocates on behalf of associate degree nursing programs to government officials and influential organizations at the national level.

THE VALUE OF OADN PROGRAM MEMBERSHIP

There is tremendous value when your associate degree nursing program joins OADN as a Program Member, your entire faculty become members too! Benefits include:

- The OADN Official Journal *Teaching and Learning in Nursing, an exceptional resource of peer-reviewed, evidence-based data and strategies for use in associate degree nursing curriculum and program administration.
- Special Membership Rates and Discounts to the OADN Annual Convention, OADN Leadership Institute, as well as exclusive tuition discounts with our university and industry partners. Save the date for the 2023 OADN Convention themed Turning the Tide in Nursing Education, November 15th – 18th, in San Diego, CA!
- Continuing Education Resources and Credits, including the innovative Virtual Simulations Reviews, Next Generation NCLEX, American Red Cross Clinic Learning Opportunities, and many more!
- Advocacy and Outreach, OADN is the ONLY national organization exclusively advocating for the preservation and strengths of the associate degree nursing pathway. OADN issues Policy Briefs and Position Statements, along with advocacy resources for OADN members, addressing important issues affecting ADN education.
- Leadership and Faculty Development Offerings, including the OADN Leadership Institute, the ONLY national program exclusively tailored for associate degree nursing faculty and program deans and directors, providing cohort-based learning, mentoring, collaboration, and COMMUNITY!
- Alpha Delta Nu Honor Society, the ONLY honor society that recognizes the academic excellence of associate degree nursing students and encourages the pursuit of advanced degrees in nursing as well as professional life-long learning.
- Academy of Associate Degree Nursing (AADN), honoring excellence in associate degree nursing and inspiring the next generation of leaders within the ADN community. AADN was established to recognize individuals who have worked as change agents to model exemplary dedication to associate degree nursing education and practice to advance health.

- Awards, Scholarships and Grant Opportunities. OADN collaborates with national nursing organizations and industry partners, such as CastleBranch, Elsevier, ACEN and NurseThink, along with the OADN Foundation to provide annual award, grant and scholarship opportunities for ADN educators and students.
- Your voice in OADN! Members have full voting rights in OADN elections as well as numerous opportunities to engage at the national level on OADN committees and task forces. OADN members are tackling important issues such as Next Generation NCLEX, faculty workforce and compensation, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) in ADN education, academic progression, social mission in nursing education, educational simulation and many more!

THE COST OF OADN MEMBERSHIP

OADN Annual Dues Rates:

- Program Membership: $595
- Individual Membership: $125
- Retired Individual Membership: $90

WE NEED YOUR VOICE – JOIN TODAY

JOIN TODAY! You can help shape and direct the future of this critical pathway on the national level. Our voice and impact for Associate Degree Nursing are stronger together!

For more information on all the ways OADN advances ADN education at the national level and supports you and your ADN program, visit us at Home - \(oadn.org\) or contact us by phone at 800.809.6260/email at oadn@oadn.org