

Lynne Kuhl, MSN, BA, RN
Assistant Professor of Nursing, Viterbo University - Retired
ATI Nursing Education Consultant

Lynne Kuhl is a member of the Advisory Council, co-chair for Health Work Environment workgroup, member of the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging workgroup for the International Society for Professional Identity in Nursing (ISPIN). Recently retiring as an assistant professor of nursing for Viterbo School of Nursing, she is currently working part time for ATI as a Nursing Educational Consultant. Lynne previously worked in a variety of roles including critical care, oncology, medical-renal, dialysis and vascular access. Lynne received her MSN in nursing education at the University of St. Francis, her undergraduate degree in psychology and sociology from Oral Roberts University, an ADN from the College of Lake County. This diverse work and education history brought Lynne to consider the concepts of professional identity in nursing with specific interest on preparation for practice and becoming a nurse.
